

Early Years Autumn 2 overview

Autumnal Fun	Personal, Social and Emotional development This half term in our learning, we will	Communication and Language This half term in our learning, we will
	- continue to build constructive and respectful relationships - express our feelings and consider the feelings of others - explore our emotions through play and stories	- learn to use new vocabulary - remember the class rules and follow them without adult support - understand how to listen carefully and know why listening is important - ask appropriate questions and understand simple questions
Physical development This half term in our learning, we will	English This half term in our learning, we will	Mathematics This half term in our learning, we will
- develop our fine motor control - develop our gross motor skills (scooter, balancing, running, hopping) - use scissors with increasing confidence - begin to form letters - become more independent when putting on our coats - take our shoes and socks off and put them on again independently	- recognise letters and say the sound - begin to blend sounds into words - hear and write initial sounds - share books with friends and name the different parts of a book	- count, up to 5 objects carefully, saying one number for each item. - show numbers to 5 using my fingers or objects. - say which group has more or fewer things (up to 5) - match numbers to the right number of objects (1–5) - recognise the numerals 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5. - notice when a small number of objects changes (adding or taking away 1)
Expressive Arts and Design This half term in our learning, we will		Understanding of the world This half term in our learning, we will
- take part in simple pretend play and develop storylines in play - use our imagination when thinking about what to do with different materials - join in with familiar songs and learn new songs		- begin to recognise the differences and similarities between people - talk about what we have seen in the world around us - begin to understand that people have different beliefs and celebrate special times in different ways
Music This half term in our learning, we will		French This half term in our learning, we will take part in songs and play circle games in music to encourage singing and speaking		- learn numbers to 10 using stories and games - say simple French greetings